RLI CLAIMS PARTNERSHIP

At RLI, the claim handling process begins and ends with our customer. From the first contact after a loss occurs and throughout the life of a claim, our customer is a true partner in the resolution of a claim.

Through decades of experience in transportation claims, RLI has assembled a high-quality network of defense attorneys, accident reconstruction experts, engineers and field adjusters. This network allows us to evaluate claims based on critical jurisdictional knowledge and defend our customers with the best team possible.
